GOOGLE INC.'S
ANSWER WITH COUNTERCLAIM

ANSWER TO COMPLAINT

Google Inc. ("Google") hereby responds to the complaint of Robert Novak, d/b/a Pets Warehouse and PetsWarehouse.com, as follows:

1. Google admits that Plaintiff complains of Defendants, but Google is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations in Paragraph 1, and on that basis denies the remaining allegations therein.

Nature of the Action

2. Google denies the allegations in Paragraph 2 insofar as they relate to Google. Google is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in Paragraph 2 as they relate to other parties, and on that basis denies those allegations. The remaining allegations in Paragraph 2 state legal conclusions to which no response is required.

The Parties

3. Google is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in Paragraph 3, and on that basis denies the allegations therein.

4. Google is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in Paragraph 4, and on that basis denies the allegations therein.

5. Google is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in Paragraph 5, and on that basis denies the allegations therein.

6. Google admits that it does business within this judicial district but otherwise denies the allegations in Paragraph 6.

7. Google is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in Paragraph 7, and on that basis denies the allegations therein.

8. Google is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in Paragraph 8, and on that basis denies the allegations therein.

9. Google is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in Paragraph 9, and on that basis denies the allegations therein.

Jurisdiction and Venue

10. Paragraph 10 in the Complaint states legal conclusions to which no response is required. To the extent a response is required, Google admits only that it does business in this judicial district, and denies all other allegations insofar as they relate to Google, and insofar as they relate to other parties, denies the allegations based on a lack of knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations.

THE FACTS

Pets Warehouse's Products

11. Google is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in Paragraph 11, and on that basis denies the allegations therein.

12. Google is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in Paragraph 12, and on that basis denies the allegations therein.

AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES

First Affirmative Defense

96. The Complaint fails to state a claim upon which relief may be granted.

Second Affirmative Defense

97. Plaintiff lacks standing to bring the claims alleged in the Complaint.

Third Affirmative Defense

98. PETS WAREHOUSE is a generic term reflecting the goods and services offered by Plaintiff.

Fourth Affirmative Defense

99. PETS WAREHOUSE is descriptive of the goods and services offered by Plaintiff, and has not acquired secondary meaning.

Fifth Affirmative Defense

100. Plaintiff's trademark infringement and dilution claims are barred because Plaintiff has abandoned the PETS WAREHOUSE mark.

Sixth Affirmative Defense

101. Upon information and belief, Plaintiff filed a voluntary Chapter 7 bankruptcy petition ("Bankruptcy Case") in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Eastern District of New York in 1993. During the course of the Bankruptcy Case, Plaintiff represented to the Court on numerous occasions that he owned no intellectual property. Plaintiff now claims that he enjoys trademark rights dating back 30 years. Plaintiff is judicially estopped from claiming that he owns a trademark for PETS WAREHOUSE.

Seventh Affirmative Defense

102. Google has not used the PETS WAREHOUSE mark in commerce within the meaning and scope of the Lanham Act.

Eighth Affirmative Defense

103. Assuming any infringement has occurred, which Google expressly denies, Google is an innocent infringer under Section 32(2) of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1114(2).

Ninth Affirmative Defense

104. Advertisers who make a legally permissible use of the PETS WAREHOUSE mark in their advertising or on their websites are not committing direct trademark infringement, unfair competition or dilution, and therefore Google cannot be subject to contributory or vicarious liability.

Tenth Affirmative Defense

105. Plaintiff's claims are barred by the provisions of N.Y. Gen. Bus. Law § 349(e).

Eleventh Affirmative Defense

106. Plaintiff's claim under N.Y. Gen. Bus. Law § 368-d is barred because the section was repealed in January 1997.

Twelfth Affirmative Defense

107. Plaintiff's claims are barred, in whole or in part, by the terms of his agreement with Google.

Thirteenth Affirmative Defense

108. Plaintiff's claims are barred by the defense of fair use.

Fourteenth Affirmative Defense

109. Plaintiff's claims are barred by laches.

Fifteenth Affirmative Defense

110. Plaintiff's claims are barred by estoppel.

Sixteenth Affirmative Defense

111. Plaintiff's claims are barred by acquiescence.

Seventeenth Affirmative Defense

112. Plaintiff's claims are barred by unclean hands.

Eighteenth Affirmative Defense

113. Plaintiff's claims are barred by waiver.

Nineteenth Affirmative Defense

114. To the extent that Plaintiff suffered any damage or injury, which Google expressly denies, he failed to take the necessary steps to mitigate the damage or injury sustained.

Twentieth Affirmative Defense

115. The Complaint, and each purported cause of action contained therein, is barred in whole or in part because Google's actions were based on good, sufficient, and legal cause, upon reasonable grounds for belief in their justification, and were taken in good faith and without malice or ill will for Plaintiff.

COUNTERCLAIM FOR CANCELLATION

Defendant and Counterclaimant Google Inc. ("Google"), through its attorneys, hereby counterclaims as follows against Robert Novak, d/b/a Pets Warehouse and PetsWarehouse.com ("Novak"):

General Allegations

116. Based upon the allegations in Paragraph 3 of the Complaint, Google is informed and believes and therefore alleges that Novak is an individual and a resident of the State of New York with his principal place of business at 1550 Sunrise Hwy, Copiague, New York.

117. Counterclaimant Google is a Delaware corporation with its primary place of business at 1600 Amphitheatre Parkway, Mountain View, California 94043.

118. Based upon the allegations in Paragraph 13 of the Complaint, Novak claims to be the owner of United States Trademark Registration No. 2,600,670 for the mark PETS WAREHOUSE.

119. Based upon the allegations in Paragraph 11 of the Complaint, Novak claims to be a seller of pet products and live aquaria under the PETS WAREHOUSE mark.

120. This Court has jurisdiction over this counterclaim pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1338 and 15 U.S.C. § 1119.

First Claim for Relief
(Cancellation of Registration – Generic Term)

121. Google incorporates by reference Paragraphs 116 through 120 as though fully set forth herein.

122. PETS WAREHOUSE is a generic term for the goods and/or services offered by Novak. The phrase PETS WAREHOUSE is a nondistinctive combination of the generic words “pets” and “warehouse.” As such, it neither identifies Novak’s goods or services nor distinguishes Novak’s goods or services from those of others.

123. Google has been damaged and is likely to continue to be damaged by registration of the PETS WAREHOUSE mark.

124. Accordingly, Google is entitled to an order from this Court canceling Novak’s registration. With respect to this order, Google requests certification to the Director of the United States Patent and Trademark Office (“USPTO”) instructing the Director to make the appropriate entries upon the USPTO’s records.

Second Claim for Relief
(Cancellation of Registration- Descriptive Term)

125. Google incorporates by reference Paragraphs 116 through 124 as though fully set forth herein.

126. PETS WAREHOUSE is descriptive of the goods and/or services offered for sale by Novak and thus cannot serve to identify Novak as the source of those goods or services.

127. The PETS WAREHOUSE mark has not acquired secondary meaning in the marketplace and thus has not become distinctive.

128. Novak's federal trademark registration for PETS WAREHOUSE was granted less than five years ago.

129. Google has been damaged and is likely to continue to be damaged by registration of the PETS WAREHOUSE mark.

130. Accordingly, Google is entitled to an order from this Court canceling Novak's registration. With respect to this order, Google requests certification to the Director of the USPTO instructing the Director to make the appropriate entries upon the USPTO's records.

WHEREFORE, Google prays for judgment:

- a. dismissing the Complaint with prejudice;
- b. ordering the Director of Patents and Trademarks to cancel Novak's United States Trademark Registration Number 2,600,670 for PETS WAREHOUSE and to make the appropriate entries upon the USPTO's records reflecting the cancellation;
- c. awarding the costs and disbursements of this action, together with reasonable attorneys' fees; and

d. granting such other and further relief as this Court deems just and equitable.
